

St Cronan's Association CLG

Providing high quality support to people & their families living with disability

Rehabilitative Training Teacher / Instructor

Our Service

St Cronan's Association CLG provides a wide range of high-quality day supports for people with an intellectual disability and autism throughout Roscrea, Birr and Nenagh. Services provided are day services, supported self-directed living programmes, outreach services, community supports, educational, vocational and rehabilitative training. The ethos of service provision is underpinned by our Vision which is that all people with intellectual disability and/or autism should be treated fairly and supported to achieve their goals and true potential. Our work is underpinned by the principles of Person Centeredness, Equality, Justice, Respect and Dignity.

Job Title

Teacher / Instructor

Purpose of Role

The purpose of this position is to provide Rehabilitative Training (RT) for adults with an intellectual disability and autism attending St Cronan's services in accordance with the RT TPS / New Directions, and the organisations policies, procedures, guidelines and safety statement, to meet the needs of those engaging with the RT programme. Provide academic, behavioural and emotional support to the programme participants in groups and one - to - one basis, supporting solution focused outcomes.

Experience, Knowledge and Qualifications

- Recognised third level teaching qualification.
- Experience of working with people with intellectual disabilities and autism - ideally some experience of assessment process.
- Ability to plan, implement and evaluate education programmes and be familiar with the national qualification framework and accreditation process
- Experience in writing and developing education modules and lesson plans for young people with an intellectual disability and autism
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Excellent IT skills, and ability to write reports, collect and collate data.
- Ability to facilitate sessions with students and facilitate one -one sessions.
- Experience in delivering education programmes to young people with additional needs.
- Experience and knowledge in the issues of young people and in the managing psychosocial issues, behavioural issues
- Organise and facilitate the delivery of education programmes in accordance with the RT TPS / New Directions, and the organisations policies, procedures, guidelines and safety statement, to meet the needs of those engaging with the Rehabilitative Training programme.

Personal Attributes

- Excellent time management and organisational skills
- Ability to work on own initiative
- Commitment to supporting the positive development of young people with an intellectual disability/ autism
- Excellent communication skills
- Relevant experience, knowledge, passion for education
- An interest in working with young people from a wide variety of educational backgrounds and literacy levels
- A friendly approach together with flexibility and adaptability
- Committed to a high-quality service
- Reliability, confidence, energy, trustworthiness, hardworking and discretion
- Full clean drivers' license is essential

Application by CV and cover letter to Mary Frend, Human Resources Manager, St Cronan's Association CLG, Grange, Roscrea, Co. Tipperary or email: mary.frend@cronans.ie before 14th September 2020